TV dancer to pass on tips

Strictly Come Dancing's Camilla Dallerup will host an evening of dance at Cambridgeshire's newest development. The BBC's dancer will give a three-dance display, with her professional dancing partner Ian Waite, followed by an hour's group dance class at Cambourne.

Local dance band 78rpm will then perform at the event, at The Hub Community Centre, in the High Street, on Saturday, September 24.

John Slater, spokesman for the Cambourne Consortium, which is hosting the event, said: "Camilla and Ian are both wonderful dancers and it's a privilege to have them come along to Cambourne to pass on some of their tips and techniques.

"It is the perfect way to bring to the attention of residents that the excellent community facility of The Hub is now fully up and running for their use and enjoyment."
